Advisement of Respondent's Rights

a. Counsel of Choice

You have the right to be represented, at no expense to the government, by counsel of your choice authorized to practice before this Court.

b. Free Legal Services

You may be eligible for free legal services. To help you determine if you might qualify, I am hereby providing you with a list which provides contact information of the persons who might be able to assist you.

c. Evidentiary Rights

During these proceedings, you will have a reasonable opportunity to examine and object to the evidence against you, to present evidence on your own behalf and to cross-examine witnesses presented by the government.

d. Appeal Rights

At the conclusion of these proceedings, the Court will decide whether or not you will be removed from the United States. Should you disagree with the Court's decision, you have the right to appeal to a higher tribunal called the Board of Immigration Appeals. To do so, you must file Form EOIR-26 within 30 calendar days after the date the Court enters its decision. If the final date for filing falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the time period for appeal shall be extended to the next business day. If the time period expires and no appeal has been filed, the decision of this Court becomes final. I am hereby providing you with a copy of your appeal rights which you should thoroughly review.

e. Right to Designate Country of Removal

If you are ordered removed from the United States, the country to which you will be removed will be one that you choose, except as otherwise required by law.

If you cannot be removed to the country of your choice, the Court designates in the alternative:

1. The country of which the alien is a subject, national, or citizen.
2. The country from which the alien was admitted to the US.
3. The country in which is located the foreign port from which the alien left for the US or for a foreign territory contiguous to the US.
4. A country in which the alien resided before the alien entered the country from which the alien entered the US.
5. The country in which the alien was born.
6. The country that had jurisdiction over the alien's birthplace when the alien was born.
7. The country in which the alien's birthplace is located when the alien is ordered removed. If impracticable, inadvisable, or impossible to remove the alien to each country described in the previous clause of this subparagraph, another country whose government will accept the alien into that country.
